Islamic Marriage Contract

“And it is among His signs that He has created for you wives from among yourselves, so that you may find tranquility in them, and He has created love and kindness between you. Surely in this there are signs for those who reflect.” (30:21)

“O mankind, We have created you male and female, and appointed you races and tribes, that you may know one another. Surely the noblest among you in the sight of God is the most pious of you. God is All-knowing, All-aware.” (49:13)

We, _____ and _____ indicate that we enter into an Islamic marriage. We agree that men and women are created equal. We have the same rights and joint responsibility for each other and for our families - as well as a shared responsibility for the success of the marriage.

Our marriage will be based on mutual respect, fidelity, honesty and appreciation.

We express our agreement that all decisions are made on the basis of mutual consultation and agreement.

Mahr

_____ gives, and _____ accepts a “mahr” consisting of _____.

Both parties have an unconditional right to file for divorce regardless of agreement on the decision.

Prior to the formalisation of this marriage contract, the couple must have entered into a marriage in accordance with Danish law.

Divorce in the Family Court results in immediate Islamic divorce. Child custody is determined by Danish law.

According to the above, the bride and groom confirm the formalisation of this Islamic marriage.

May Allah bless this marriage and make it steadfast, stable and happy.
